SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

A thirty-one year-old Lincoln man was arrested on charges of suspected child abuse resulting in serious injury to a nine month-old child.

On June 21, Placer County Sheriff's Detective Bill Summers responded to the Sutter-Roseville Medical Center E/R on the report of a suspected child abuse. The child's mother brought the nine month-old boy to the E/R. The child had some swelling to his head and a possible leg injury. A medical exam was conducted and injuries consistent with child abuse were discovered.

The criminal investigation revealed the child had been watched by the mother's boyfriend the night before. The boyfriend stated that the child had fallen off the changing table and sustained the injuries.

James Allen Lindley, 31, of Lincoln, was arrested last night at the child's mother's home in Lincoln. Placer County Child Protective Services took the nine month-old child into protective custody. Lindley's two children, a five year-old boy and a three year-old girl, were also in the home. They were released to their natural mother who resides in Grass Valley.

Lindley was booked on one count of Felony Child Abuse and is being held on $25,000 bail.
There is no photo of Lindley available at this time.
